

41 High Street
Kibworth Beauchamp
Leicester LE8 0HS

Preferred Travel Services

Tel: 0116 279 3929
Fax: 0116 279 3214
email: mail@preferredts.com

2019 CHRISTMAS QUIZ

It's that time of year again – time for the fiendish Preferred Travel Services Christmas Quiz. Posers, puzzles...if you have a question you'd like us to think about including next year please email tony@preferredts.com

1. Which city is home to a 185-metre long stadium built entirely in white marble?
2. The French word for Sweden gives its name to which fabric?
3. The former dictator of Albania, Enver Hoxha, only permitted showings of films by one Western Actor. He was a comedian, born in London in 1915. Who was he?
4. Which country's national flag is not rectangular?
5. Which American state flag includes the Union Jack?
6. In the picture, taken in Burgos, Spain, which Spanish word (blacked out in the picture) has been translated into English as 'lids'?

7. The French 'Iles du Salut' are regularly evacuated. Evacuation times are published in advance. Why does this happen?
8. Shakespeare and Cervantes both died on the same day, 23rd April, 1616. True or False?
9. The French port of Roscoff is home to the 'Maison des Johnnies'? Who or what is remembered in the museum.
10. At the 2018 winter Olympics, players of which ice hockey team had difficulty understanding each other?
11. Which Car manufacturer's name means 'Damage' in Czech?
12. Which city's underground, opened in 1896 and one of the world's oldest, has never been expanded beyond its original circular route?
13. What is the link between Angel Falls in Venezuela and Singapore's Changi airport?
14. In radio terms, what is the modern equivalent of 'CDQ'?
15. Which country's capital is 'Sugar' in French, and its main city 'Our Lady of Peace' in Spanish?
16. What was unusual about Portugal's capital city from 1807-1820?
17. Our walking guide in the Valencia region is called 'Chechu'. This is an abbreviation of two common Spanish names. Which ones?

18. Douglas Corrigan was one of the earliest intrepid flyers. After a 3000+ mile flight in 1938, he became known as 'Wrong Way Corrigan'. Why?
19. Albert Hammond had pop hits in the 1970s with songs like 'Free Electric Band' and also wrote many, many songs for other artists. He has been called a 'Rock Rock Star'. Why?
20. Easyjet's shortest flight is just 74 miles. Between where and where?
21. What have Brazil, Kazakhstan, Australia and Myanmar done which Egypt hasn't yet?
22. Which US state contains the US' westernmost point? And which has the easternmost point?
23. Pictured is the canal aqueduct over a French river. There is a much more famous, British-designed bridge over the river further east. Which bridge and which river?

24. Which Barcelona building was recently given a building permit, 134 years after the first application?
25. The little Dutch island of Hooge has one daily ferry to the mainland. But the ferry sails twice on a Thursday. Why?
26. Das Verruekte Flughafenpiel (the Crazy Airport Game) is a satirical board game where the aim is to spend/waste as much public money as possible. Which city's much-delayed new airport is it based on?
27. In the Lithuanian capital, Vilnius, stands a statue (pictured) of West Coast American musician Frank Zappa. What was his link to Lithuania?

28. What is the link between the German North Sea island of Heligoland, and the island of Zanzibar?
29. In 1915 Sir Cecil Chubb (as in locksmiths) spent £6600 on some stones for his wife's birthday. But as she didn't like the present, so he gave them to the nation, and you can see them today. What stones are they?
30. In the main grandstand of the Valencia football ground, Mestalla, seat 164 of Row 15 is occupied by Mr Vicente Navarro. What is unusual here?

We trust you enjoyed the quiz. Best wishes for the festive season.